Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. Yellow Tail was the best at all stages, went to the front when his rider was ready and could have won farther off. Himself was out in the middle of the track all the way and could not keep up in the first part of the race, but came fast in the stretch under the whips Blue and Orange was a contender for nearly five furlongs, showing big improvement and he will do when rightly placed. Cloche d'Or had no chance from the start and was standing still when the barrier went up.

Winner—B. h, by Inspector B.—Tommie Bell (trained by C. Reynolds).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second driving. Eloim is steadily improving, received a good start and forced the pace throughout, drew away in the stretch when called on, but tried to bolt and Odom had to tap him with the whip to keep him straight. Zirl ran well and outgamed Midnight Chimes in a drive through the stretch. The latter did her best. Lady Radnor displayed a good performance and is worth remembering. Alpaca ran a bad race. Springbrook was a contender for a half mile, then tired badly and finished next to the outside rail. Aunt Bella showed early speed.

Scratched—36064 Iridescent, 110; 38185*Mark Cheek, 105; 381065 Tom Cogan, 100; 38182 Twilighter, 100; 38181*Alhambra, 95; 38150 Mosketo, 94.

Winner—Br. c, by Farandole—Nigra Vela (trained by J. McLaughlin).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. It was only an exercise gallop for the winner at the weights. He led unextended and won eased up. Glennevis was under a hard drive from the head of the stretch to dispose of Merriment. Merriment swerved across the track when called on in the stretch and Blake had all he could do to keep her straight. Hist displayed speed and was a sharp contender for five furlongs when he tired. H. L. Coleman needs a longer route and there was too much early speed in the race for him.

Overweights—Tugai Bey, 1 pound.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. Cherubim was best and would have won more easily with a better ride. She was in several pockets in going to the stretch turn and had to come around the other horses and was whipped to get to the front and Redfern took no chances riding her out. Loravale was hard ridden all the way and outgamed Michaelmas in a drive. The latter rounded to with a rush and showed much speed.

Winner—B. h, by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest (trained by C. Horton). Went to post at 5:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Knight of the Garter was crowded on the first turn, but readily went to the front on the backstretch. Minder took him wide on the turns and he finished next to the outside rail and was much the best. Carroll D. was under pressure through the last half mile, but could not get up. Imperious ran a fair race for six furlongs and came again at the end. Black Dick was shut off by Carroll D. on the first turn. He should have been third, but Burns threw the place away at the end by easing up.

No show betting.

Announcement to Reliable Bettors.

A Reliable Proposition from Kesponsible People.

For the past several years the head of this firm. Mr. T. D. Conway, a man who has been a follower of the turf for the past fitteen years, and who has served in most every capacity known to a racing course, has been prevailed upon by his many friends and acquaintances to open up and conduct a Turf Information Bureau. Knowing the ups and downs of the racing game as did Mr. Conway and the many things he would have to contend with, he would not listen to any proposition along this line until quite recently when, after several very liberal offers of co-operation from some of the most prominent stables now at the eastern tracks, Mr. Conway decided to open an establishment of this kind and devote his entire attention to the business.

Knowing that we would embark in this business soon after the Bennings meeting opened, we selected a number of reliable people to whom we have been sending daily, since the opening of the Bennings races, a two-horse-wire, horses that in the opinion of our clockers and handicappers were the best and that were out for the money, so that when we did wish to put our information on the market we would have some reliable and truthful foundation for our advertisement. What our success has been is best told in the following statement which shows the names of the horses we have been sending daily for the past two weeks. Look over the list carefully and see what our information has done:

Whiskey King raced John A. Scott to retirement in the first half, came away with a rush in the stretch run and was easing up at the end. Joe Martin ran to his best form and finished fast. Automaton outgamed John A. Scott when in the final drive. The latter ran well for a half and tired. Mollie T. was eased up in the last fifty yards. Golden Rule was virtually left, but ran poorly.

Went to post at 4:58. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving.

Dr. Riddle was well handled. Howell wore Annie Lauretta down with him gradually while going up the hill, took command at the turn into the homestretch and came away easily in the stretch run. Daddy Bender was pinched off at the far turn, but came again fast on the inside and outgamed Flaneur in a sharp drive. The later finished resolutely and had to go around the leaders to get up. Annie Lauretta showed a burst of early speed, but tired. Chickadee bore out in the stretch run and finished on the outside. Henry of Trastamare did not run his race.

Bernota closed a great gap from a bad start and worked into the lead right at the end after a game drive through the last quarter. Nugget led nearly throughout and appeared to be caught napping at the end. Legal Maxim finished with a great rush and is very good. Arthur Ray made up considerable ground. Yellowstone fell away early. Jerid is strictly a mudlark. Sallie Green went well.

Went to post at 2:41. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving. Padua is evidently a superior class colt, indulged the pacemaker to the stretch, where he drew to the front cantering and was much the best. Dr. Rowell came from a long way back in the last furlong. Alamansor ran in vastly improved form, got away poorly and moved up like a flash at the end. Toltec is improving. Sir Appleby failed at the end. Rodolfo went a fast three furlongs.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Canejo was lucky throughout, came through next to the rail, saving much ground, and proved the best stayer in a long stretch drive. Dollie Wiethoff went wide on the stretch turn losing much ground, but finished gamely. Aunt Polly, probably best, was carried out on the stretch turn and was wearing the leaders down at the end. Alaria got away badly, worked a rough journey, closing a big gap. Matin Bell, away badly and excessively used in an early effort to get into a contending position, tired in the final drive.

GRAVESEND THREATENED

If the present intentions of the local authorities of the Borough of Brooklyn are carried out this will be the last season in which we will see racing at the Gravesend track of the Brooklyn Jockey Club.

It is stated on the best authority that there is a movement, fostered by several members of the local board of improvement, to have streets cut through the Gravesend track this year, completely destroying it for racing purposes, says Daily America of Thursday.

action has been threatened times during the last five years, but in each instance the calamity was averted. Several years ago the authorities succeeded in se-Several curing an extensioon of Avenue U, which cut off one end of the property, but did not interfere with the track proper. Some of the stables owned by the Brooklyn Jockey Club are now located on the property that was cut off from the main plant.

This time, however, it is said that the movement is certain to result in the carrying out of the project, and that the streets above Avenue U will be continued through the property. It is said that powerful influences are at work to have the plan carried out, and that a majority of the members of the board have been pledged to it.

At the rooms of the Brooklyn Jockey Club it was stated that the officers of the association positively had no knowledge of proposed action, and had as yet received no official notice that the streets would be cut through.

"They have threatened to do it several mes," said an officer of the association. "If times," they succeed in doing it this time, of course we cannot help it.'

It is understood that the intention of the local board at the present time is to have the work of cutting the streets through begin some time next fall. If this is done it will not interfere with the fall meeting, which ends on September 26 this year.

The great improvements and the spread of operations in the outlying districts of Brooklyn contiguous to the Brooklyn and Sheepshead Bay tracks has been for some time considered as threatening their continuance as racing properties.

The Coney Island Jockey Club took the precaution some time ago to have its property thrown open as a public park, and thus prevented any immediate danger of streets being cut through. The park is open to the public at all times except the afternoons on which there is racing, and during the sum-mer hundreds of the residents of Sheepsehad Bay and persons from other sections can be seen on the grounds.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY STAKES.

The Coney Island Jockey Club has announced five stakes for its June meeting, entries to which will close Monday, April 7. They are as follows:

For three-year-olds and upward-

The Bay Ridge Handicap, $1,700 added; 1 1-4 miles.

The Grass Selling Stakes, $1,500 added; 1 1-16 miles.

For two-year-olds-

The Pansy Stakes, selling, $1,500 added; 3-4 mile.

The Daisy Stakes, $1,500 added; 5-8 mile The Rosebud Stakes, fillies, $1,500 added;

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

M. S. Denslow, who managed the defunct Kenilworth racetrack at Buffalo last year, is now in Buffalo, and it is rumored he is there in the interest of Chicago capitalists, who are prepared to bid high for the track when it is put up for sale.

Mr. Denslow, when asked who he represented, said: "Wait until the sale is held."

Riley & Tucker, owners of the Aqueduct track, have had a representative in Buffalo, it is said, for several days, looking into the Kenilworth property, and his report must have been a favorable one, as it was learned from good authority that the New York turfmen will bid for the plant. Some time ago this firm talked of buying the Fort Erie track, being anxious to obtain control of a course situated centrally between the east and middle west, but the deal fell through on account of the fear of adverse racing legislation in Canada

D. J. Campau, of Detroit, has an attorney in Buffalo, who is also looking into the value of Kenilworth. It is said that Mr. Campau is anxious to get the track and is prepared as the report of its insolvency is filed by the referee which the courts appointed.

As an outcome of the Tennessee Derby, a three-cornered match race has been arranged for next Tuesday at Memphis. Hildreth, owner and trainer of Witfull, and G. W. Poole, trainer of Flocarline, both felt somewhat aggrieved that their fillies were not in the Derby. They told Mike Daly they believed if they had been eligible to start Claude would have finished third. There is also some reported rivalry between Hildreth and Poole as to the relative merits of the s. Daly said that if the association was willing to hang up a purse he would race Claude against the two fillies at weight for age at a mile and a furlong. The association agreed to give $1,000, all to go to the winner, and the horsemen among themselves agreed on seven pounds below the scale, which will make Claude's weight 115 pounds, Witfull's 110 and Flocarline's 110 pounds. Bullman will ride Claude, Coburn Witfull and Wonderly Flocarline.

Describig some of Mr. Corrigan's young horses now in training at Louisville, the Courier-Journal says:

"Maxey Blumenthal, chestnut colt by Riley -Hattie Harris, is a full brother to one of Mr. Corrigan's horses that won both here and in England-Joe Ullman. Blumenthal Ullman's partner, hence the name. This is another big, lengthy, well-furnished colt. another big, lengthy, well-furnished colt. The brown imported colt Raven is by Ravensbury—Rakestale. He is a medium-sized colt, but put up like a runner. He should be an early sort, has shown speed, and is much liked by the stable. The bay colt Galba, by Major Richards-Miss Preston, should make a useful horse, if nothing more. He is a medium-sized, stout, compact colt.

Some of the two-year-olds have the ea marks of stake winners. The brown by Riley—Sardonyx, dam of Sardine and Sardonic, the latter winner of the Kentucky Oaks, and a winner in England, is a great, big rangy, powerful colt, with stout legs under him. This colt is neither leggy nor washy, however, and has the substance to stand severe training. There is a lot of racing quality to him, and he has the size to be a great horse. He is as yet unnamed.
"The brown colt by Riley—Helter Skelter,

Mr. Corrigan's well-known old race mare to Hurly Burly, is full brother colt, with splendid quarters and shoulders has size, but is not growthy, is evenly built and shows enough quality to be a stake horse. Horsemen would select both the colt and the unnamed brown colt by Artillery— Otyanna, as very likely sorts. They are both of the same type and of about the same size 15.3. Otyanna is an Onondaga mare, and is the dam of St. Casimir, Andrattus and These three are considered by the stable as promising stakes candidates."

Writing from Memphis a competent turf critic says:

"Schorr's phenomenal success with his two-year-olds here is due in a measure to the clever tactics which trainer Walker employs in fitting the youngsters. Early in the spring Walker has a starting machine erected in the six furlong chute. He brings his lot out in squads of six and eight, lines in the six furlong chute. them up to the barrier, breaks them away once or twice and then works them. This kind of schooling brings good results. of the Schorr youngsters act like old-timers when they go to the post, are quick to break and, as a rule, run over their field in the early stages.

"If all trainers were as painstaking with their two-year-olds as Walker we would have none of these tiresome delays at the post. It would be a good idea for the difassociations up the line to employ men to school horses a month or six weeks before their meetings open. It would not only be a good thing for trainers, but would be appreciated by the public as well. The be appreciated by the public as well. The Latonia Jockey Club owns its own barrier, and the probabilities are that trainers at the Milldale track will have the advantage of it.

Archie Zimmer has left Memphis for New York with jockey Fuller and his stable, be there in readiness for the opening of the Aqueduct meeting. Fuller's riding at the New Orleans meeting and at Memphis was phenomenal. In the winning jockey contest at New Orleans he won in a walk, and on several occasions when he hooked up with secured call on Fuller's services, and the boy rode for Hildreth there and also at the Memphis meeting. Hildreth thought so much of him that he offered Zimmer $10-Memphis 000 for the contract for the rest of the year. Senator T. D. Sullivan, however, had promise of first call on Fuller, and Zimmer would not entertain any other offer. Fuller will ride for Mr. Sullivan in New York this sum-

NOTES OF THE TURF.

F. Q. In case of a dead heat the money bet is added together and divided equally between the backer and layer. This, of course, refers to the straight betting. Place and show betting goes on the three horses precisely as in the case of any ordinary race.

Charles Kay, Cleveland, Ohio, You are in error. You are entitled to the full odds on Musical Slipper, but only half the Banter money. The rule governing bets in cases of dead heats is as old as racing.

C. Davis, Cincinnati, O. Flying Buttress was 1 to 3 to show in the fourth race at Bennings, April 17.

1 to 4 to show in race 38153.
